

Glendale Plastics

Quality Policy

The Glendale Group is committed to being a high quality provider of vacuum formed and injection-moulded plastic products, striving to exceed customer expectations. The Glendale Group accomplishes this through continual improvement in customer service, supplier relationships and operational processes.

We succeed by focusing on:

- Customers
- Quality
- Product Development
- Teamwork

We will achieve our improvement targets through ongoing training and communication of the key business objectives to all personnel.

JB Galloway
Managing Director
December 2006